

ARTIST CALL 2017

Small Works of Bliss

What does “bliss” look like to you? Are there colors, images, gestures that evoke vitality, optimism or old-fashioned happiness for you?

This exhibition seeks to portray those things, moods, places, ideas that cause us to pause, take note, enjoy, share and feel alive.

WORKS DUE NOV. 10-11

RECEPTION: DEC. 2

RUN OF SHOW:

NOV. 24, 2017 THRU
JAN. 5, 2018

JUROR

This year's juror is Jeff Schaller. Jeff's work combines images and text often gleaned from popular culture. Using encaustic paints, he uses lost and found images, words, and language, to paint with a precision and intricacy not normally found in encaustic. The visual and written symbols merge to create a unique aesthetic language that is both provocative and whimsical. His multiple-image pieces evoke emotions and memories in the viewer. The combination of images tells a story and provokes a personal exchange between the audience. Schaller's work has been exhibited throughout the United States.

Jeff is a key force behind the Studio Tours in Chester, Delaware and Montgomery counties, PA, giving him a broad overview of contemporary art.
